BISHOP OUSTED AS ENEMY OF SMOOT
E. R. Owen of Wellsville Said to Have Denounced Senator at Priesthood Meeting.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
HYRUM, Jan. 11.—E. R. Owen, who ran on the Democratic ticket for secretary of state at the last election, and who was for many years the bishop of Wellsville, was removed from his office as bishop for daring to vote against the Smoot at a meeting of the priests of the Hyrum stake some time before he was deposed, according to reports in circulation here.

It is said that there were some effusive expressions of Smoot uttered at the meeting and to some of the bishop of Wellsville took exception, and when asked to make his position plain, gave it in a opinion that Smoot was causing the Mormon people much trouble and destroying the faith of more young Mormons than all other elements combined.

Afterward he was "induced" to resign.

WOMAN TRIES TO TAKE OWN LIFE

Drinks Carbollic Acid, but Is Saved by Use of Stomach Pump.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Mrs. A. Driscoll, 336 Patterson avenue, attempted to take her own life by drinking an ounce of carbollic acid late this afternoon.

Dr. Paul Ingebreten was called, and by the prompt use of a stomach pump saved the woman's life, although she is still in a critical condition.

Dependancy caused by domestic troubles is thought to have been the cause of the act. The woman had made an attempt upon her life this morning, but was prevented from taking the poison by her children.

WILL CONTEST ORDINANCE.
Fruitmen Think Measure Requiring License of Farmers Is Illegal.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Fruitgrowers of Weber county are going to contest the validity of the section of the city ordinance requiring a license from farmers who bring fruit, vegetables and other ranch products to the city and offer them for sale from those in charge of the ordinance.

The farmers say that this section of the ordinance is passed for the protection of the merchants and butchers who have a monopoly of the business and by their organizations fix the prices on all foodstuffs.

The farmers have become so incensed over the ordinance that they have organized a committee composed of H. C. Hicken, J. M. White and C. J. Adams, has been appointed to obtain the services of a lawyer and contest the legality of the ordinance.

GIVE FREE TRANSPORTATION.
Action of Railways Should Materially Help Utah's Omaha Exhibit.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Free transportation of all Utah soil products to Omaha for the Western Land Products exhibit, to be held in the Nebraska City, January 18, should enable to make a fine showing.

Orders were received at the local freight department of the Union Pacific railroad this morning directing that all exhibits sent from Utah for the Nebraska fair be in charge of J. E. Wright of Ogden and J. E. Taylor of Salt Lake City.

It is planned to have quantities of canned goods, sugar, beef, sheep and grain, and other evidences of the agricultural wealth of Utah attractively displayed at the Omaha show.

Says Woman Is Incompetent.
Special to the Tribune.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Amelia Newton, an aged woman, known to all sentimental young folks of Ogden as a fortune teller of rare judgment and occult powers, is said to be incompetent to manage her business affairs according to Magistrate West, a friend, who, this afternoon, filed a petition in the probate division of the court to have her guardian appointed as guardian of the woman and her estate.

The Newton woman lives near Quincey avenue and Twenty-second street. The petitioner says that her property consists of real estate valued at $6000.

Canal Work Being Pushed.
Special to the Tribune.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Everything is being placed in readiness for the reopening of work on the Davis and Weber counties canal, so that when spring comes no delay will be experienced in finishing the laying of concrete for a distance of almost three miles. About forty men and a number of teams have been put to work by Engineer W. M. Bostaph, placing concrete mixing machines at regular intervals along the unfinished stretch of the canal. As soon as the first concrete is laid, a large force of men will be put to work, so that the contract can be finished in time for the irrigation season.

RECORD BARS WAY TO POLITICAL HONOR
Idaho Senate Will Not Confirm Hattabaugh as Insurance Commissioner.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.
BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 11.—The senate will not confirm J. C. Hattabaugh, Governor Hawley's appointee for the office of state insurance commissioner, owing to a de-falcation when Hattabaugh was treasurer of Latah county eighteen years ago. Opponents of Hattabaugh declare that he will resign. The amount of the de-falcation to the state was $15,000. Hawley will insist on the appointment unless Hattabaugh voluntarily resigns.

A movement will be started tomorrow by the Democrats to force the Republican senate to take immediate action on the confirmation of Rich, the Mormon, as immigration commissioner, and charges by the Democrats against the present incumbent, Fallon, are expected to be made.
